The Grain Trade.

Receipts of wheat continue quite large.—Yesterday, better than eighty-nine thousand bushels, including flour, were received by Railroad; namely, 1746 bbls flour, and 80,298 bus. wheat. Shipments were comparatively light, 4,277 bbls. flour and 22,513 bus. wheat. The market was pretty active and prices steady, but at the close rather a dull feeling prevailed. The telegraph advises us of dull and heavy markets for wheat at New York and Buffalo. In flour there was more steadiness, and previous prices were maintained, with a fair degree of activity.

Receipts and Shipments for October.

The Railroad receipts of Flour and Wheat at this point for the month just ended amount to 48,479 bbls. of the former, and 1,531,018 bus. of the latter, equal in the aggregate to 1,773,413 bushels of Wheat, against a total of 532,295 bushels for the same month last year, showing an increase in favor of October, of this year, of nearly a million and a quarter bushels! We shipped last month 60,209 bbls. Flour, and 1,477,405 bushels Wheat, equal in the aggregate to 1,800,963 bushels against 665,216 bus. shipped in October last year.

Governor Randall's Appointments.

Governor RANDALL, though much better, is not yet well enough to keep his appointments at Sheboygan and Manitowoc. Indeed, his physicians think that he ought not to speak again, during the canvass; his throat and lungs being still very sore. The Governor, however, hopes to meet his fellow-citizens at Ozaukee on Thursday and at West Bend on Friday of this week. If not able to talk himself, he expects to have a friend along to speak for him.

Our eloquent fellow-citizen, CARL SCHURZ spoke at Fond du Lac yesterday; and will be at Sheboygan and Manitowoc to-morrow. It is hoped that he will also be able to attend the meetings at Ozaukee and West Bend.

U. S. Officials in Pursuit of Fred Douglas.

Our readers will remember having noticed amongst the numerous documents which the Harper's Ferry affair has been the means of bringing before the public, a letter from FRED DOUGLAS to old BROWN, dated over a year ago, inviting the latter to take dinner with him, or in FRED's language, to partake of a "mouthful." This circumstance the chivalrous Virginians, in their anxiety to "save the Union," consider sufficient ground for the arrest of FRED DOUGLAS on the charge of treason, and at the request of GOV. WISE, a squad of U. S. Officials have been sent in pursuit of the swarthy offender. The Rochester Union, published where FRED DOUGLAS resides, contains the following:

Uncle Sam's officers are quite numerous in this neighborhood just now. We saw in the Arcade yesterday afternoon, Mr. Spencer, of Utica, the U. S. Attorney for this District, and understand there are some half dozen Deputy Marshals from different parts of the State, who are sauntering about.

We suppose Mr. Spencer's visit here was in relation to the proceedings pending before the U. S. Commissioner Storrs, in which certain parties are charged with violation of the Post Office laws; but it is intimated that he is striking at higher game, and that his business here is nothing less than the personal direction of the efforts making to arrest Fred Douglas on a charge of treason, and send him to Virginia for trial. If this be so, we rather guess his mission will fail of accomplishment. We presume that Fred would have no objection to submit to the judgment of a jury of New York the amount of treason there was in the "mouthful" of which he invited "Ossawatomie Brown" to partake a year ago; but to place himself in the power of Gov. Wise and a jury of Virginia slaveholders would be to rush upon certain death—with or without law.

Deputy Marshal Olmstead was seen leisurely walking up the avenue, in the direction of Mr. Douglass's residence, yesterday afternoon, but we presume he did not make any important discoveries. Fred took early lessons in dodging the sleuth-hounds of oppression, and he will not place himself in the power of his pursuers until he thoroughly understands his ground.

NOBLE'S KNOW NOTHINGISM.—The Milwaukee Sentinel, says Noble has branded the charge of his being a Know Nothing "a deliberate fabrication." He has done nothing of the kind; nor will he, when the evidence to the contrary is so palpable and direct. He came to Wisconsin as a lecturer on Know Nothingism from Western New York, and was, as is well known, one of the leaders in establishing that Order in Wisconsin. He will not deny these facts, whatever the Sentinel may say for him to the contrary.—Madison Patriot.

Mr. NOBLE has denied these Patriot "facts" (a Democratic alias for fictions) and the Whitewater Register has backed up that denial. The charge of Know Nothingism against RANDALL, NOBLE and HARVEY, is a brazen falsehood, as none know better than the reckless liars who have put it in circulation, in the vain hope of cheating adopted citizens out of their votes.

SCHOOL BURNT.—The State Normal School building, at Ypsilanti, Michigan, was destroyed by fire last Friday night, with the furniture, apparatus and library. The loss is stated at $25,000, and there was an insurance in the Hartford Company of $10,000.—Other rooms have been procured by Professor SILL, and the school will not be interrupted.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The Republicans of Washington County have nominated OLIVER C. BISSELL, of Hartford, as their candidate for State Senator, and NATHAN PARKER and J. H. MYERS, for the Assembly—all three good and true men, whom we should rejoice to see elected.

CHICAGO BANKRUPT.—WELLS' Commercial Express give a melancholy picture of the financial condition of Chicago:

The city treasury must be in a terrible condition. Little bills of less than five dollars for necessaries furnished, are put off week after week by the Comptroller, and holders of larger claims have felt compelled to levy on the personal property of the corporation. Even the mightily misgoverned city of New York has a flush treasury, the Comptroller advertised his readiness to pay at once, principal and interest, certain portions of the city bonds which do not fall due until the first of January next.

LETTER FROM JOHN P. HALE.

The Forbes-Herald Story Exploded.

Learning, on Saturday morning that Hon. John P. Hale was in this city, and having just laid down the New York Herald in which he is roundly charged with complicity in the Harper's Ferry affair, we addressed him a note, which with the reply is printed below. The reply effectually disposes of the Herald's infamous charge:

OFFICE PRESS AND TRIBUNE,
Chicago, Nov. 29, 1859.

HON. JOHN P. HALE—Dear Sir:—We see in the published letters of one Col. Forbes, of New York, and the comments of the New York Herald thereon, an attempt to implicate you in common with Senator Seward, Gov. Chase, Gov. Fletcher, and other well-known Republicans, in the Harper's Ferry insurrection, led by John Brown. We believe all covert charges and adroit innuendoes of that sort are unwarranted by the facts; hence we beg of you for publication, a statement of your connection with and knowledge of the author of the letters to which we refer, and the insurrection now happily at an end.

Yours very truly and respectfully,
EDITORS PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

MR. HALE'S REPLY.

Richmond House, Chicago, Oct. 29.

GENTLEMEN:—Since I received your note this morning, I have seen a number of the New York Herald, to which you refer, and I find in an editorial article, the following:—"The main thing proved by this correspondence is, that for the last year and a half, at least, the project of the Harper's Ferry outbreak was well known to Seward, Sumner, Hale and others, and that they, in their intense selfishness, and to forward their political or commercial speculations, suffered the project to ripen, and bear the disastrous fruit it has borne. They—not the crazy fanatic John Brown—are the real culprits; and it is they, not he, who if justice was fairly meted out, would have to grace the gallows."

In the same paper, I find in large letters the following: "Senators Seward, Sumner, Hale, Wilson, Chase, Fletcher, Chase and other Black Republicans implicated in Old Brown's plot."

And again, in the same paper, under the head, "MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES," in large letters, the following, viz: "Further documentary testimony involving Seward, Sumner, Hale, Lawrence, Chase, Fletcher, and other prominent Abolitionists; correspondence between Col. Forbes and his abolitionist friends; his interview with Seward, Sumner and Hale."

Again in another article in the same paper, which appears to be editorial, as I understand it, appears the following relating to Colonel Forbes: "Again he had interviews with Sumner and Hale also in Washington; and, in fact it appears that all the leading Republicans and Abolitionists of the country were fully cognizant of the plans of Brown, and if they did not fully identify themselves with him, they did not denounce him to the authorities."

I have not read the paper through, and do not know but the same thing is repeated many times more in the same paper, but I have quoted enough to answer my purpose. The foregoing extracts charge in no equivocal language, that Seward, Sumner, myself and others knew all about Brown's projected outbreak at Harper's Ferry, encouraged it, are implicated in it, that this is proved by documentary testimony, and that we deserve a felon's fate on the gallows.

I shall not undertake the task of vindicating either of the gentlemen named with myself, from any charges which may be brought against them, collectively or individually, by a newspaper, or in any other mode, but leave that to their own hands, not doubting their entire ability to do it far more ably and satisfactorily than I could. So far as relates to myself, I can only reply by denying every word and syllable, and pronouncing the whole from beginning to end, in general and in detail, false, and challenging the world for a particle of testimony, written or verbal, sustaining one of the charges thus recklessly brought against me, or for a single circumstance calculated to cast a suspicion on me in an unprejudiced mind.

I never had any knowledge or intimation from any one that an insurrection, or outbreak, or anything of the sort was contemplated by John Brown or any one else, in Virginia or elsewhere; nor had I the remotest suspicion of the fact, and when the knowledge of the late occurrences in Virginia were first made public through the newspapers of the land, I am sure that to no human being were they more unexpected and surprising than they were to myself, or heard by any one with more regret. I do not know how to make this denial more broadly than I have; but when the jaundiced eye of some political opponent in the Free States, who is now exulting and rejoicing over this sad history, in the hope that it may be made of some account politically by which the Democratic party may reap some benefit, and the Republican party be injured, shall have pointed out some possible omission behind which I may be supposed to have sheltered myself, I will be ready to meet that. But I will go further, and say, that if there be any such evidence against me as is charged, let it be laid before the Grand Jury of Maryland or Virginia, and let them find a bill against me for any violation of the laws of either of those States, and I pledge myself to go any day into any State of the Union and meet the charge, in person, before any judiciary tribunal.

But you ask me to state my connection "with and knowledge of the author of these letters, and the insurrection, now happily at an end." The latter part of your enquiry, I have already answered. In regard to the other, viz: my knowledge of any connection with Col. Forbes, I will answer you to the best of my recollection. I think the first time I saw Col. Forbes to know him, was several years since, when he called on me at the St. Nicholas House in New York, and asked me to attend a public meeting to be holden in some public Hall, to express approbation of the conduct of Capt. Ingraham, of the U. S. Navy, for his conduct in releasing Koszta from an Austrian vessel of war.

Once after, he called on me at New York to attend, and I think presided, at a meeting of a portion of the foreign residents of New York, in commemoration of some event in the history of liberty in Europe, the precise nature of which has now escaped me. Subsequently he called on me several times in New York and once or more in Washington.

The character of that interview in Washington is correctly stated by Colonel Forbes when he says that he informed me that all his expectations of pecuniary remuneration for going to Kansas had utterly failed, or nearly so; that in consequence, his family were in a most suffering and destitute condition, and he urged me, not once only, but several times, to use my influence with my friends to do something for their aid. Indeed, such was their destitution, as he depicted it to me, that he was unwilling to leave Washington till I collected something for him to remit to them, and I did collect from several gentlemen to whom I stated the case, a small sum, I do not remember how much, which I gave to him. When I have stated the above, I have stated briefly all I know of Col. Forbes, and all the communication, written or verbal that I ever received from him, except I should add that at the time I first became acquainted with him, he represented himself as intently watching the state of political affairs in Europe, and was living in daily expectation of being recalled there by some revolution in which he was to act a part. To the best of my recollection, as is stated in the same number of the Herald from which the extracts I have quoted are taken, "I confined myself to explaining the urgency of sending relief to my family."

Col. Forbes, at that time, and on some prior occasion, in New York, I think, represented to me that he had abandoned a very respectable position, which he had in New York, by which he was comfortably and respectably supporting his family, to go to Kansas and labor in the Free State cause, on the promise that he should be remunerated therefor. The precise manner in which the remuneration was to come to him I do not recollect, though I do remember that it struck me at the time he told me that the prospect appeared uncertain and precarious, and I so expressed myself to him at the time, and my astonishment that a man in his situation, with a family dependant upon him for support, should have given up such a situation as he then held, for such a prospect as his journey to Kansas afforded, and he said it seemed to him so now, but it looked differently when he undertook it.

Col. Forbes never wrote me a letter, long or short, in his life, unless it may have been some short note about those meetings he invited me to attend, or something of that sort, and I am equally confident that I never wrote him a letter of any kind in my life. This statement I have made from memory merely, never having heard of the metter in regard to which you have written me till this morning. With much respect, yours,

JOHN P. HALE.

THE CITY.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.—Go to TUNIS & Co.'s and get DICKENS' works, in a cheap edition. He has just laid upon our table the "Pickwick papers," and it certainly contains a greater amount of reading for the price than all the other papers together, that are around it.——The Philadelphia American advances the latest truth. It saith; "The man who would rob an editor, would steal the letters off a grave stone, if he found them loose."——Another false alarm Sunday night; ANGELINE was not out.——The New York Herald announces the probable visit next spring of the New York City Guards.——There were seven cases of "disorderly" in the Municipal Court yesterday.——Bear in mind the operatunity offered to-night, to see "Mohega".——Among our many and warm friends is "Our Musical Friend," from TUNIS' on Wisconsin street. It comes to us this week richly laden with choice gifts.——A young friend of ours, who belongs to several Societies in town, was told the other day that he was looking poorly, when he replied that it was no doubt owing to his exposure to the mighty dues.——Yesterday afternoon the air sharpened itself on the northern icebergs, and managed to cut out a great number of red roses.——Rev. CORNING preached last Sabbath to a large congregation, at the First Presbyterian Church, it is presumed he will accept the call which this Society has extended. He is an able and fluent speaker, deep thinker, and at times even eloquent.——Dr. DOUGLAS' lecture, last evening, was well attended, and was triumphant to the many queries propounded by Spiritual opponents.

THE YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION announce a lecture from JOHN P. HALE, on Thursday evening of this week, on the "Last Gladiatorial Exhibition at Rome." With the combined attractions of the lecturer and the subject, we shall content ourselves with simply calling attention to the advertisement.

We understand the Association do not contemplate making out a regular programme for the lecture season, inasmuch as they cannot pre-engage the Hall, but that the public may expect all the distinguished lecturers who visit our sister cities of Chicago, Detroit, &c. The Lecture Committee have been unremitting in their exertions in this behalf, and have received the most satisfactory assurances.

Meanwhile we wish to say a word about the general objects of this Society. Did it offer little return for the nominal cost of admission, the literary reputation of the city alone should be a conclusive motive, but the abundant advantages at the option of each individual member, leave no room for objection. No citizen should estimate his influence so inconsiderable as to wish to escape a certain measure of responsibility, for the success of an institution of acknowledged public necessity. We understand the Directors intend personally to present its claims to non-members, and inasmuch as all persons are eligible to the full privileges under the new rules, we look for a largely increased list.

WE give a gratuitous insertion to the advertisement of a New Haven lady, in the idea, that some of our Milwaukee ladies, known to be in similar straits, may take the hint and bring grist to our advertising mill:

"WANTED TO HIRE.—A lady, having a pleasant home, no incumbrances but a husband and one child, wishes to place herself at the disposal of some servant who could come well recommended from her last place. She would prefer one who would be willing to remain within doors at least five minutes after the work is finished. She would also stipulate for the privilege of going to church herself once each Sunday, having been compelled to refuse the last applicant who was not willing to allow her but a half a day once a fortnight. Wages satisfactory—if under $10 a week. She is deeply conscious of the utter inability of ladies in general to comply with the present demands of servants, but she hopes by strict attention to please in all respects. The best references can be given; also, a good recommend from one who has now left her to the fate of many housekeepers. Please apply before 6 A. M.

STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—The steam fire engine from Novelty Works, N. Y., which was on trial yesterday, gave general satisfaction. The machine itself is substantial but compact, and decidedly an improvement, in external appearance, on the former engine which visited us. Yesterday she got up steam within eight minutes, and in eight minutes and a quarter threw a heavy stream through 150 feet of hose. She also supplied No. 5 thro' 1000 feet of hose with water enough to throw an ordinary stream. The trial established her superiority over mere muscular power in throwing a continuous and powerful body of water.

THIRD WARD REPUBLICAN CLUB.—At an enthusiastic gathering of the young Republicans of the Third Ward, held last evening at the Frankfort House, for the purpose of organizing a Young Men's Republican Club, the following officers were elected:

President—E. W. CARPENTER.
Vice President—SAMUEL HILLIS.
Secretary—GEO. J. HAYWARD.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held this (Tuesday) evening at half past seven o'clock, in their room in BOWMAN'S Block, next door north of the Post Office, when an Essay will be read by Dr. D. W. PERKINS on "The Active Principle in Christianity." All young men are especially invited to attend.

FILLMORE has a small house on Cass street, near Mason street, at $12 per month; also two on Knapp, corner of Milwaukee street, rent $7 and $12 per month; also house on 4th street, near Phelps House, $12 per month; also on 5th, near Walnut, at $8 per month; one corner of Mason and Jefferson and one on Jefferson street.

OPERA.—The new Opera, Mohega, or the Flower of the Forest, by Mr. SOBOLEWSKI, will be performed this evening, at Albany Hall. Our city may justly be proud of this remarkable musical drama. It is comparatively easy for a composer to write an opera of disjointed songs and melodies, each one of which is itself complete, but it requires no little amount of genius and careful study to blend the stormy, heroic, tender, passionate, and lovely, so as to form a beautifully artistic and harmonious whole. In Mohega, every whisper of love, every clang of the instruments in warlike clamor, every soft breath from the delicious flute, every low dream-like murmur of the enchanted violins, have their part in the beautiful story the music is telling. Where there is pathos, the music is pathetic, where valor, the music is heroic, so that it is impossible to mistake the nature of any sentiment portrayed.

The first scene represents the devout worshippers of the olden time, assembled for divine service in a rustic church. Here the music is soft and spiritual, like the swelling æolian harps amid rustling branches. Then comes the clangor of war; the wild war-whoop of Indians, and the pitiful dismay of tender women; then the victorious voices of conquerors; and by-and-by the gentle dreams of dawning love, the sounds of revelry, acts of chivalry and deeds of valor. Self-renunciation, the sweetest and most praiseworthy of virtues, we find in the artless Mohega; in Ellen, the lofty and religious; in Pequod the majestic dignity of his nation; in Pulawski the refinement and chivalry of his country. But it is needless for us to give an extended notice of this production, as everybody will be there this evening to see, and hear for himself. We have attended several of the rehearsals of this opera, and the more we hear, the more we admire it. It is like old wine, and will richen with time.

Reserved seats can be secured during the day, without extra charge, at Mr. HEMPSTED'S music store.

The ladies most gallantly bare it;
To stand in the street
Is indeed quite a treat—
They have "nothing to wear"—and they wear it.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Additional Foreign News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31—3 P. M.

CHINA.—Mr. Ward, the American Minister, was courteously received at Pekin. The news of his arrival at Pekin was brought to Shanghai by a Russian gunboat, but no letters were received from him. It was reported that he would be at Shanghai about the end of August, and that he expected to be able to send home the ratified treaty by the following mail.

The correspondent of the Times regards the reception of Mr. Ward as a most politic stroke of the Pekin Cabinet; but it does not at all remove the treachery to the British Minister.

The Friend of China says that, as the American treaty gives the U. S. liberty to render their good offices in any difficulty with the Western powers, Mr. Ward will soon have an opportunity of testing the virtues of that clause.

Gen. Mourieff, Governor of the Russian Territory on the river Amoor, had a special messenger sent to Pekin, to acquaint the Russian Minister. The Russians, apparently, had a perfect understanding with the Chinese. The officers who lost their vessels at the Peiho had been tried by court martials, and acquitted.

The authorities at Pekin are represented as ready to receive the British minister on friendly terms; meanwhile the Indian government had been applied to for 14,000 troops for China, and two regiments were under orders to depart.

The London Times says the terms of the Zurich treaty, are almost identical with those agreed upon at Villa Franca. Some questions are left open, which it is intended to submit to the approval of the Congress. England can and will take no part in any Congress of which the first principles be not the recognition of the rights of the Romagnese and Tuscans.

No other ruler than the Italian Prince, in whom they so fondly put their trust, will be the signal of a conflict as deadly as the one just brought to a close.

A letter from Florence details the grounds on which the exequatur of the American Consul at Leghorn, Joseph Bonda, was withdrawn. It is asserted that he busied himself greatly for the restoration of the dethroned princes, of whom he was a warm partisan.—Bonda is directly charged with having recommended certain republicans to proclaim a republic, while at the same time he was exerting himself for the Princes, and the inference is that he sought to raise a new government.

Acting Mayor of Baltimore Shot.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 30—3 P. M.

J. Marshall Hanna, a reporter for the Baltimore Sun, whilst in the fire alarm telegraph office, to-night, got into a difficulty with parties present, drew a pistol and shot Wm. McPhails, at present acting Mayor of the city, during the sickness of Mayor Swann. The shot took effect in McPhails' thigh, producing a serious wound which may prove fatal.

LATER.—McPhails is somewhat easier this morning. He exonerates Hanna from all direct blame. It appears that Hanna and operator Harcourt had some words; the former drew a pistol and Harcourt grasped it, and during the struggle it exploded with the result stated. McPhails says the pistol was in the hands of Harcourt when the shot was fired.

Further Developments.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31—3 P. M.

Copeland's confession to Johnson, published this morning, says W. B. furnished money to go to Virginia, by Messrs Plumb of Oberlin. Mrs Stanbeland of this city knew of plans; supposes her husband did. The latter denies any knowledge of the matter. C. H. Langstine, a colored man is implicated.

The San Juan Affair.

WASHINGTON, Oct 31.—3 P. M.

Intelligent gentlemen who have just arrived here from the Pacific coast, say that people there will be surprised at the visit of Gen. Scott to San Juan, as only in the Atlantic States that island has been magnified into the importance of a continent. They add that the island is not worth quarreling about, and that its value has been surprisingly overestimated.

Escape of Prisoners.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 31.—3 P. M.

R. H. Champ, a very wealthy farmer of Bourbon county, who was recently sentenced to the penitentiary for 15 years for rape, escaped from jail in this city last Saturday night. Great efforts are being made to recover him. Another criminal escaped with him.

Funeral of Mr. Mason.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 30.—3 P. M.

The funeral of Mr. Mason, late U. S. Minister to France, took place to-day. The funeral procession was very imposing, there being a large military turnout, and an immense concourse of citizens. His remains were buried in Holywood Cemetery near the tomb of President Monroe.

Large Sugar House Burned.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.

The extensive sugar house on —— street, six stories high, occupied by Seth Adams, was burned this evening. The loss on the stock is $80,000, and on the building and machinery $50,000. There was an insurance of nearly $60,000 on the stock, and on the building $20,000. Very little of the stock was saved; not over 2,000 bbls of sugar being taken out.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—9 P. M.

At the last session of the Senate, resolutions were passed requesting the President to cause the heads of the Department to submit estimates for the expenses of the Government to the next Congress, upon a basis not exceeding fifty millions annually, exclusive of the Public debt and the interest thereon.—Some estimates are in course of preparation in accordance with this resolution, and with a view to strict economy; but it is not at all probable the expenditures will be restricted such narrow limits.

Reliable advices state that the Government of Nicaragua has every disposition to make with us a satisfactory transit arrangement, and that the only obstacle to this is the Belly Contract, which, however, has already failed in some particulars.

No action has been taken by the government, regarding the aiders and abbetors of Harper's Ferry conspirators already captured. Should sufficient evidence against them be obtained, it is supposed that the requisition for their surrender will be made by Governor Wise, as in the cases of Cook and Hazlet.

Earnest Clay, of the British legation in Mexico, arrived here to-day and immediately sought an interview with Lord Lyons.

Trial of the Insurrectionists.

CHARLESTOWN, Oct. 31—9 P. M.

The Court met at 9 o'clock this morning. The prisoner was brought in, and the trial proceeded without delay. Brown looks better than before, and his health is evidently improving. He laid on the bed as usual. The Court House and its approaches were densely crowded. Mr. Griswold, appeared for the defence, and taking up the several charges of the indictment, replied to the points made in the opening argument of the prosecution.

Mr. Hunter closed the argument for the prosecution.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 31—9 P. M.

About half of the town of Auburn, Placer county, was burned on the 9th inst. Loss, $50,000.

Two hundred hostile Indians were captured at the head waters of Feather river, and placed in Mendocino Reservation.

HALIFAX, Oct. 31.—9 P. M.

The steamer Golden Gate, from Boston, is reported lost; crew all drowned, excepting 3, who have arrived at this port.

Shipwreck and Loss of Life.

BOSTON Oct. 31—9 P. M.

The schooner Emerald, of Fruro, Capt. Paine, foundered on Saturday night off North Chatham Light House. The crew save one were drowned.

GLORIOUS REPUBLICAN RALLY AT THE CAPITOL!—SPEECHES BY CARL SCHURZ AND JAS. H. HOWE.—The Republicans had a glorious meeting at the Assembly Hall last night. Carl Schurz and James H. Howe were announced to speak. The hall, gallery and lobbies were filled. The audience was little less in point of numbers than that called out to hear the joint discussion between the gubernatorial candidates last Monday evening.

On motion of Hon. Chauncey Abbott, Myron H. Orton was called to the chair, who after a few appropriate remarks introduced James H. Howe, of Green Bay, the Republican candidate for Attorney General.

Mr. Howe's speech was an admirable one—logical, clear, and candid—and was received with frequent applause.

Mr. Schurz then came forward and was greeted with enthusiastic demonstrations of applause, as he was introduced. He spoke for about an hour, and made one of the most brilliant and eloquent speeches that we ever had the pleasure of listening to. We shall not attempt a synopsis, trusting that it may be given to the public entire before the close of the campaign.

After he had concluded, Myron H. Orton, was loudly called for and responded in a very happy manner for a few moments, keeping the audience in a continued roar of applause and laughter. The meeting was largest and most effective one of the campaign in this city.—Madison Journal.

KILLED BY THE INDIANS.—Last fall, Mr. Ulysses Porter left this place and went to the head quarters of Black River to hunt and trap furs, and to trade with the Indians for the same. He was accompanied by Mr. A. W Prindle, who stopped but a few weeks and then returned home. Mr. Porter had about $200 in goods, which he was to trade off for furs. During the winter and spring he was occasionally heard from, and the day was fixed when he should arrive home. But weeks passed and he did not come, nor were there any tidings from him, until some time in April, when Mr. Brooks, a fur trader, was at his camp, which he found burned and scattered about; also he found some tools, the remains of a burned trunk, and the bones of a dog. It was inferred that he had been murdered by the Indians and robbed, and his camp fired. Nothing more definite was known until recently. A brother of Mr. Porter's, from Minnesota, has lately been up in that region among the Indians, and from him we learn that the Indians say that Porter was shot by two Indians from the Eau Claire, and that they did it for his furs and goods. The brother has taken pains to get all the information he can, and is satisfied that such is the case. He intends to pursue the guilty Indians and if possible bring them to justice.—Jackson Co. Banner.

ROBBERY OF THE AMERICAN EXPRESS OFFICE AT WATERTOWN.—We learn that on Saturday evening last, as Mr. C. A. SPRAGUE, agent of the American Express Company at Watertown, was checking some goods, a man entered the office through the back door, and reaching across a small safe that stood behind Mr. SPRAGUE, snatched four packages of money, containing in all, $411,60, and instantly jumped out through the back door and escaped with his booty. Mr. SPRAGUE and some others pursued, the thief closely, but to no effect, as he proved to be equally light of foot as he was light-fingered.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN NEW ORLEANS.—On the night of the 23d ult., twelve blocks of stores and residences were consumed by fire at New Orleans. The amount of personal property removed out of the reach of the fire was very large, but the destruction of property was nevertheless immense, not less, it is estimated, than half a million dollars worth. The buildings destroyed were nearly all small stores and tenements. The fire originated in a milliner's shop.

BININGER'S
OLD LONDON DOCK
GIN

A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS,
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,

Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties, [Tonic and Diuretic] which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in Cases of one and two dozen each, and sold throughout the world by Druggists, Grocers, &c.

Waupacca Co.	31,000
Waushara Co.	35,000

The above list comprises some of the very choicest farming, prairie, heavy timber, oak opening and pine lands in the State, and unceasing water powers of the first importance.

These lands were selected years ago, with regard to contiguity to market, and are therefore the very best selections in regard to soil and location to be found anywhere in the "Great North-West."

THE FOX & WISCONSIN IMPROVEMENT CO., will soon have completed the great Canal through Central Wisconsin, which connects Lake Michigan with the Mississippi River. A majority of these lands being within a few miles of this great improvement, will have unequalled facilities for shipping their products to all markets.

Partisan Vindictiveness.

The News of Sunday morning furnished its readers, as appropriate to the day, with a column and a half of the most disgraceful personalities and grossest falsehoods, that we ever remember to have seen even in the columns of that rabid and reckless partisan sheet. Governor RANDALL is the object of these foul and false attacks, and the following extract will give our readers, a just idea of the whole article:

> He is a shiftless, thriftless, faithless man, and weak, vacillating Governor, whose re-election would be the endorsement of many mistakes, which Carl Schurz says cannot be palliated, and a burning, lasting, damning disgrace to a State which fairly groans under the accumulated burdens, which have been heaped upon her, through his venality and folly.

That cause must indeed be a desperate which needs the help of such vulgar abuse and wanton calumny. We are glad to know that the vituperative attacks of the News are condemned and repudiated by its own party friends, and will stimulate the Republicans to re-doubled efforts on behalf of the honest, able and faithful Governor whom personal and political malice in vain assails.

A Genuine Democratic Platform.

The Charleston Mercury, under the influence of the recent outbreak at Harper's Ferry, proposes the following moderate dose for the Charleston Convention:

> 1. Let the Legislature of the Southern States at their next meetings, distinctly declare the rights of the South as plainly deducible from the Dred Scott case, accompanied with a resolution that they will vote for no one for the Presidency or Vice Presidency of the United States, who does not plainly and distinctly affirm and support them, without non-committalism, dodging or equivocation.
>
> 2. Should the Charleston Convention declare and affirm these rights, and nominate candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency who distinctly support them, then the Southern States will support such candidates; and should they be elected, proof will be afforded that the South may continue with safety in the confederacy.
>
> 3. Should the Democratic nominees on the contrary be defeated, and the Republicans succeed, then the Southern Legislatures should recall their Representatives in Congress, and call a convention to devise measures for their common safety.
>
> 4. But should the Charleston Convention refuse to declare and affirm the right of the South, as deducible from the Dred Scott Case, or nominate candidates who will not affirm and support them, then let the Southern States nominate and support candidates of their own, plainly and faithfully reflecting and supporting their rights.
>
> 5. Should the Southern States succeed in electing their sectional candidates thus nominated, of course they will deem it a sufficient proof for the present of their safety in the Union.
>
> 6. But should the Southern States fail in electing the sectional candidates thus nominated, then let the same course be pursued as has been suggested in case the Democratic party be defeated with candidates standing on the rights of the South, and the Black Republican or Abolition candidates be elected.

The Mercury omits to say how many Free States it expects to carry for its "sectional candidates" on this "sectional" platform.

> HOW CAN HE ESCAPE PERJURY?—The newly elected Governor of Ohio, Wm. Dennison, Jr., during the canvass is reported to have made the following declaration in one of his public speeches:—
>
> "If I am elected Governor of Ohio—and I expect to be—I will not let any fugitive be returned to Kentucky, or any other slave State; and if I cannot prevent it in any other way, as Commander-in-Chief of the military of the State I will employ the bayonet—so help me God."
>
> His first act on approaching the executive chair will be to take an oath, in which he will make the following declaration:
>
> "I will faithfully observe and enforce the constitution and laws of the United States—so help me God."—National.

GOV. DENNISON never made the remark that the National attributes to him. It is the forgery of some unscrupulous partisan, and was so publicly branded by GOV. DENNISON himself during the recent canvass in Ohio. What the People of that State thought of the fabrication, the emphatic majority they gave GOV. DENNISON sufficiently tells.

NO OBJECT.—The Lancaster (Pa.) Union tells a good story of the President. It seems that Mr. BUCHANAN, on the train which lately bore him from Lancaster to Columbus, on his way to Washington, became interested in a brakeman, who was something of a wag, and made up his mind to "do something" for him. On the arrival of the train at Columbia, Mr. BUCHANAN accosted the brakeman, when the following dialogue took place:

Mr. BUCHANAN—"Young man, are you employed on this train?"

Brakeman—"Yes, Sir."

Mr. BUCHANAN (patronizingly—How would you like to have a situation at the White House?"

Brakeman (mischievously)—"Old man, your time is too short!"

Mr. BUCHANAN made tracks for the bridge.

THE LOUISVILLE Journal, noticing some of the fanatical attempts of Democratic journals to make the Republican party responsible for the fillibuster foray of "Ossawatomie" BROWN, says:

> "We sincerely believe that such articles as the above are more prejudicial to the interests of the South and the stability of the Union, than all the mad attempts of Brown and his ragamuffin crew."

THE HARPERS FERRY OUTBREAK.—It will be seen that GERRIT SMITH and J. R. GIDDINGS both explicitly deny all knowledge of or connection with Ossawotomie BROWN's mad freak at Harper's Ferry. The attempt of the "chivalry" to implicate these gentlemen, or any Northern Republican leaders, in the "insurrection," has signally failed, as any man of sense might have foreseen that it would.

SOME DIFFERENCE.—The receipts of wheat at Detroit during the past week, by the several Rail Roads leading into that city, amounted to 50,059 bushels. The receipts at Milwaukee for the same period, were about four hundred thousand bushels.

Noble at Delavan and Geneva.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

GENEVA, Oct. 27, 1859.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As your readers would be pleased to learn how the ball is rolling in old Walworth, I propose a brief notice of meetings held at this place and at Delevan, on the 25th and 27th inst.

At Delavan, afternoon and evening our opponents had arranged for GEO. B. SMITH, of Madison, to meet our worthy candidate for Lieut. Governor, Mr. NOBLE. The meeting opened by the latter occupying one hour, and Mr. SMITH replying for a shorter space of time owing to the arrival of the hour to adjourn until evening.

On again meeting, Mr. NOBLE took the lead in a speech of one hour, Mr. SMITH following in an hour and a half, and our candidate closing the debate in a half hour speech. In all these speeches Mr. NOBLE fully sustained the reputation he has heretofore enjoyed, and which he has improved wherever he has spoken during the canvass. The Republicans at Delavan and Geneva, and throughout this county, feel that their cause is safe in his hands even when he is met by the greatest champions of the Sham-Democracy. I believe the Republicans, to a man, who have heard BARSTOW's Attorney General speech, are glad he came amongst them.—Such an utter disregard of all the finer feelings of humanity; as if the negro race really have no rights nor interests either, which white men are bound to respect; as if the people of one section of the country have no right to speak of the enormities practised in other sections of our country, however great they may be; as if even the attempts of the Democratic sham party to thrust all the enormities of the peculiar institution, wherever common property can go, should not be opposed, lest the north should thereby array itself against the South in brief, as if no circumstances whatever can justify one portion of the country condemning what exists or is attempted. in another portion, lest WASHINGTON's farewell address should be violated—positions in themselves so absurd, rather disgusted sensible Democrats and helped our cause than otherwise.

If this patent sham argument were true, should a member of either house of Congress rise in his place and speak against any evil whatever, existing only in parts of the country, he might be at once rebuked for arraying one section of the country against another: endangering the peace and perpetuity of the Union, and violating the advice of the saints and sages of the Revolution! Then again, no person whatever, in any part of the country may speak against polygamy, or Mormonism, because they are institutions cherished by one section of the Union. Out upon such nonsense; it is in keeping only with fancy Democracy! Indeed, Washington himself spoke against slavery, of abolishing and not extending it, and hence even he must have violated his own principles, and arrayed the North against the South, if this fancy party is right in opposing slavery discussion.

Mr. SMITH's manner, like all of his class, was eminently to mystify, conceal and falsify, rather than meet the question fairly. We will do him justice to say, that whatever he could make of truth or semblance of truth, he made the most of it, and certainly he needed it. But one opinion prevailed at Delevan, viz: that Mr. NOBLE was more than a match for the man whom he called "GEORGE," and I have no doubt the same impression exists in all impartial minds who have enjoyed the opportunity of listening to the gentlemen.

At Geneva the meeting was even more spirited than at Delavan. Here, especially, Mr. NOBLE, who again took the lead, alluded to the far-famed JOSELYN deposition, procured by the Democratic candidate opposed to Mr. NOBLE, which alleges that our candidate is a Know-Nothing. Mr. NOBLE showed up this affidavit to the complete satisfaction of his audience, while he admitted that Mr. J. was his neighbor, and a man of good report. He said Mr. J. was the victim of desiging men, who persuaded him to affix his name and oath to a statement which he now admits was false. He further showed that Mr. J. had himself been deceived by the promise of his pretended friends, that the affidavit should not be published! Dr. PALMER being present, admitted that he had received a letter from a friend stating that the affidavit was FALSE, so far as the time therein stated was concerned; that the date of the change should have been October, 1856, instead of 1859, as stated therein; but as he (PALMER) had given several copies of the affidavit before receiving this letter, he could not recall them and make the correction.

To this statement Mr. NOBLE responded that, during the whole of the months of September and October, 1856, instead of being at Whitewater and in a K. N. Lodge, as charged, he was in the State of Pennsylvania, fighting against the Know-Nothing party, which united with the Democratic party and elected BUCHANAN, and did not return to this State until after the election in November, and all this he could prove by hundreds of witnesses. the facts being notorious. Mr. NOBLE also stated that he never was a member of any Know-Nothing, or any other secret political organization since coming into Wisconsin, and that he never advocated at any time any proscriptive doctrine against any class—native or adopted citizens; that he joined the Republican party in 1856, and had maintained and advocated its principles ever since: that in 1857 Mr. SCHURZ received in Whitewater (the place of Mr. N.'s residence,) but two votes less than Mr. RANDALL, running ahead of the rest of the Republican ticket—This triumphant vindication of himself against a false charge, brought down the house with great applause. Mr. SMITH occupied nearly the whole time in discussing national politics, evidently under the impression that the fancy would suffer terrible breaches by the heavy guns of his opponents, (Judge DOOLITTLE, whose appointment for the same evening had failed of being given out, being unexpectedly present.) As the previous arrangement had not been made in reference to the Judge, against his desire to not interfere in the discussion, he was imperatively called out for a few moments and devoted his remarks to the single point of the necessity for the organization of the Republican party, and to such good effect that the audience were carried away by him, and no subsequent arts or sophistries could put the fancy again upon their legs. The connection and identification of the Sham Democratic party, with the attempted subjugation of Kansas by the slave power, and the intended extension and establishment of slavery in that territory, were rendered so plain and were so conclusively proved that the whole question at issue was settled beyond any human power to disturb it.

It is worthy of remark that the only attempt Mr. SMITH made to reply to this, was the merest carricature, and most utter misstatement of the Judge's position; and we cannot understand how an honest man could have so stated it. Never did our opponents' cause appear weaker than when its strongest advocate so plainly showed the necessity he felt to misrepresent a fair opponent, and thus haul off for repairs, methods so dishonorable.

Mr. SMITH also touched the old string of the Jude's leaving the Democratic party, and insinuated that it might have been because the Judge did not get the democratic nomination for Congress. To this personal matter the Judge replied (against Mr. SMITH's vociferated and reiterated protest that he should not be permitted to speak) by a conclusive appeal to pertinent historical facts, naming Mr. KNIGHT and Mr. PARTIER, gentlemen of Racine, who were knowing to the fact, that he was not a candidate for Congress, and sought no nomination, but that he had decided that if Congress adjourned without repealing the infamous border ruffian code in Kansas, he should consecrate himself to the work of opposing an administration and party who had turned their backs upon the glorious principles and the sublime objects which they had previously professed and defended, and had sold themselves to the slave power of the country.—Such was the substance of his remarks, and they fell upon the sham democrats with crushing weight, which Mr. SMITH and his party felt.

Mr. NOBLE, in conclusion, took up State matters, and by simply reading testimony given by men of Mr. SMITH's party, before the Investigating Committee, describing the conduct of Democrats when in office, brought a blush of crimson upon every Democratic cheek present, and shame upon their countenances, for the outrages their party had done the State.

In reply to this, Mr. SMITH manifested the greatest uneasiness, and went off into a strain of gross personalties, which, in conclusion, he penitently promised not to indulge in again. So mote it be.

On the evening of the 26th inst., Judge DOOLITTLE addressed a large audience at Delavan, in a masterly speech; showing from plain documentary extracts, that Congress had from the first organization of the Government, up to 1846, exercised jurisdiction over Slavery in the Territories, and that the Supreme Court, at three several times, commencing in 1810, had affirmed this doctrine, quoting chapter and section, and pages of its decisions. Said the Judge:—"I am told to respect the decisions of the Supreme Court of the U. S. I ask which decision? The Court has several times affirmed the control by Congress over Slavery in the Territories; the Dred Scott decision affirms a contrary doctrine. Which decision shall we respect? Former decisions were made amidst no political excitement, or controversy, while the latter was affirmed in circumstances the very reverse." Such speeches will tell powerfully, so long as the "irrepressible conflict" shall continue, and may yet save the country from the rapacity of the Slave Power whom we oppose. Lovers of liberty, and haters of despotism, awake, arise, and toll the knell of departing Sham-Democracy in Wisconsin, on the 8th of next November. N. D. N.

Mr. Giddings and John Brown.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23, 1859.

I had a conversation to-day with the Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, in the course of which, I alluded to his alleged implication in old Brown's scheme for liberating the slaves. He laughed at the charge. Treason sits lightly on his venerable shoulders! He says he never met old Brown, to his distinct recollection, excepting on one occasion only.

That was more than a year ago (if I rightly remember), and at a public lecture in Ashtabula County, which old Brown, he said, delivered there. After the lecture, a contribution was taken up, and Mr. Giddings, publicly gave the sum of three dollars. That was the first, last, and only money he ever contributed to the Captain.

In that lecture, the Captain spoke of the duty of the North to the slaves, and stated that he intended to devote his life and his energies to their cause. This was shortly after one of his Kansas exploits.

Captain Brown went home with him and other gentlemen, and took tea at his house. The conversation turned exclusively on the Kansas troubles and the recent Oberlin Rescue case. Captain Brown was suddenly called away; and he has never seen him, nor heard, directly or personally, from him, from that time till now.

He never heard Captain Brown speak of any prospect of forcible emancipation, or of inciting insurrections; on the contrary, he understood him to intend to confine his operations to the U. G. R. R.

He was as much astonished as his accusers at the outbreak at Harper's Ferry, and never imagined that Old Brown was the terrible Bill Smith, who, with a force of fifteen men, took Virginia with his right hand and Maryland with his left, and shook them till every corner of the Union resounded with their shriekings.

He thinks the old Captain less culpable, also, than the authors of the Fugitive Slave law. For Old Brown, he says, by his own declaration, intended to commit no slaughter: while the men who voted for the Fugitive Slave law knew that its passage would stain the soil of the North with blood.

In Indiana, in Illinois, in Kansas, in Pennsylvania, human beings have been shot down in consequence of the unrighteous enactments of that statute. He will develope these views in a lecture to be delivered on Friday night, on the Servile insurrections in the United States.

Mr. Giddings also denied that he had ever uttered the sentiments now again attributed to him with reference to slave insurrections.

You must remember the passage in which he is related to have said that he hoped to live to see the day when the negroes, armed with British bayonets and led by British officers, would march against their masters and overthrow Southern Slavery. It is now thirteen years since that passage was forged by a worthless Democratic editor at Columbus; he has denied it, he thinks, on an average, every other year since its publication; and yet, to subserve base political purposes, it is periodically reproduced to influence the votes of the people.

GERRIT SMITH'S CONNECTION WITH "OSSAWATTOMIE BROWN."—The Syracuse Journal offers the following authoritative explanation of the supposed connection of Gerrit Smith with the Harper's Ferry affair. We are glad to place before our readers evidence that a man whose fathful sincerity we have been compelled to respect, has not lent his aid to the crazy scheme of Brown:

"We learn from a gentleman who has conversed with Gerrit Smith in regard to the trouble at Harper's Ferry, that he was in no way identified with or privy to Brown's scheme. His explanation of the matter is this:

"Over two years ago Mr. Smith, in order to help the Free State movement in Kansas, gave Brown a note of about $300 against a man then in Kansas. Brown could not collect the note: so he returned it to Mr. Smith, who agreed to give him, at some future time, cash to the amount of the note. After that he lost sight of Brown until about the 1st of June last, when he received a letter requesting him to send a draft to a certain amount $100 we think, payable to the order of another party. Mr. Smith, in compliance with his request and his former promise, promptly forwarded the draft, supposing it was a bona fide firm to which it was addressed.

"He probably believed also that the money was to be used, at least indirectly, in assisting fugitive slaves, as that was the last "Kansas work" that he knew anything about. Mr. S. says distinctly that he had no knowledge nor the least suspicion that Brown was engaged in planning an insurrection. This agrees perfectly with Brown's statements, that he alone originated and carried on his scheme.

"However much in error Mr. Smith may be supposed to be, in his political tenets and practices, and we certainly widely disagree with him, we regard him as eminently an honest and candid man. Of course we believe his statement."

GREELEY AND BROWN.—Don't they work that Harper's Ferry placer industriously?—They actually found a memorandum of Old Brown's, importing that he had once mailed $3 to pay for the N. Y. Tribune—whither sent, or in what name, we cannot ascertain—of course not his own, if this is a recent matter. Yesterday brought us another handful of mare's nest, in the shape of a report that "a receipt from Horace Greeley, for letters, etc., received from Brown," had turned up among the captured papers.

We notice this only to show with what desperate and scoundrelly assiduity this business has kept up. The date of that "receipt" would, of itself, have pricked the whole bubble; and so the date is carefully withheld. We have not the faintest recollection of ever writing a word to Old Brown on any subject whatever; but it is just possible that, sometime in the year 1856, when he was traveling somewhere in the East, we wrote him word that there was a letter or letters awaiting him at this office, having been sent here in ignorance of his whereabouts. That is quite as near as we ever came to having any confidential correspondence with him; and we supposed him to have been and still to be, living in Canada, when we heard of him as rampant at Harper's Ferry.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE LAKE HURON DISASTER.—The following dispatch from Goderich, C. W., was received by Mr. A. H. Covert, of this city, yesterday. It confirms our previous apprehensions, that all of the passengers and crew of the ill-fated propeller Troy, with the exception of three persons named heretofore, have perished:

Goderich, Oct. 27th. 1859.

A. H. COVERT:—We have found the lifeboat and part of the wreck of the propeller Troy. Crew lost. Will immediately leave for Sarnia. GEO. F. PLIMLEY.

SHAWANO AND APPLETON ROAD.—A corps of men under the direction of C. D. Wescott, Esq., are now engaged in opening a State Road from this place to Appleton, on a direct line. This road, when completed, will be one of vast importance both to Shawano and Appleton. It will probably be finished by the middle of October, which will be soon enough to give us a good winter road.—Shawano Journal.

PROCLAMATION—THANKSGIVING.

ANOTHER YEAR, with its varied experiences and vicissitudes, has nearly gone, the seed time and harvest have passed away, and the products of the earth more abundant and excellent, in many respects than usual, have been gathered in. Our State has been favored by an overruling Providence with exemption from pestilence or any prevailing disease, and the commercial and financial distress, under which our land has so long suffered, seems to be approaching an end. As a State we have been free from evil disturbances, and men have gone about their daily avocations in peace and quietness. As a nation, too, we have been exempted from the scenes of blood which have been the result in other lands of the shock of contending hosts.

It is right that we should, as a people, render the tribute of our thanks to the Author of all good, for the establishment and continuance of our free institutions, for the general health and prosperity of our people, for the blessings of peace, for the privileges of free education, and freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, and for all the unnumbered blessings, individual and national, so bountifully showered upon us.

Therefore, in accordance with the time-honored usage, I do hereby recommend to the people of Wisconsin that they observe THURSDAY, THE 24th DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of THANKSGIVING, and that, abstaining from their secular avocations on that day, they unite in their several localities in grateful praise to Almighty God, for his constant care and abundant mercies.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed
L. S. my name and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at Madison, this 25th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine.

By the Governor,
ALEX. W. RANDALL.
J. B. RUGGLES, Ass't Secretary of State. oct26

BIRDS PORTEND A STORM.—The Buffalo Republic says:—A young lady who came down from Chicago on the propeller Dacotah, states that just before the tremendous storm with which the lakes were visited last week, a large number of birds lit on various parts of the propeller. The captain stated on seeing them swarming on his vessel, that it was time to look for a harbor; and so it happened. For they had scarcely put in at Presque Isle when the storm came. In that storm the propeller Troy, on the same lake, foundered and went down with a large number of the crew and passengers. The birds, in this instance, were harbingers of trouble, but really proved messengers that led the vessel on to safety.

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

I HAVE THE FOLLOWING PROPERTY which I want to exchange for Dry Goods, or any other description of Goods:
First—A good Farm in Juneau County, Wisconsin; twenty-five acres under fence and in cultivation: a log cabin, such as we all were accustomed to live in when we first came to this country, twenty-five years ago; a good stream of water running thro' the entire farm; 40 acres of it is heavy timber. A large settlement surrounds the said farm.
Second—I have that large brown house, opposite Post Office on Wisconsin st., which contains about twenty-five rooms and rents for about one thousand dollars.
Third—I have two horses, one perfectly sound, kind and gentle; the other is somewhat foundered; but take the pair together and they make a good team for family use. Special Notices.

Catarrh! Catarrh! Catarrh! Catarrh!

What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons suffer all sorts of annoyance from Catarrh. Most people know what its inconvenience and results are, yet but few know how it can be cured. It is simply a chronic irritation, and often enlargement of follicles, and consequent thickening of the mucous membrane, lining the nasal cavities, frontal sinuses, and posterior nares, and sometimes extending into the throat and lungs. From this result tightness and often vertigo of the head, obstructed nose, or a profuse flow of mucus, loss of smell, nasal voice, and often impaired hearing and taste.

The old-school remedies have never been able to do anything for it. Nasal infections and inhalations are as painful and expensive as they are generally worthless. Yet HUMPHREYS' CATARRH SPECIFIC, a simple Sugar Pill, taken two or three times per day, promptly cures the milder cases; cures at once all colds in the head, and radically cures, by persevering use, the most obstinate cases, as is proved by the experience of hundreds.

Price, with full directions,

FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5; do, in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $3.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address,

MURMURS.

BY ADELAIDE ANNE PROCTOR.

Why wilt thou make bright music
Give forth a sound of pain?
Why wilt thou weave fair flowers
Into a weary chain?

Why turn each cool grey shadow
Into a world of fears?
Why say the winds are wailing?
Why call the dewdrops tears?

The voices of happy nature,
And the Heaven's sunny gleam,
Reprove thy sick heart's fancies,
Upbraid thy foolish dream.

Listen, and I will tell thee
The song Creation sings,
From the humming of bees in the Leather,
To the flutter of angels' wings.

An echo rings for ever,
The sound can never cease;
It speaks to God of glory,
It speaks to earth of peace.

Not alone did angels sing it
To the poor shepherd's ear;
But the sphered Heavens chant it,
While listening ages hear.

Above thy peevish wailing
Rises that holy song;
Above earth's foolish clamor,
Above the voice of wrong.

No creature of God's too lowly
To murmur peace and praise;
When the starry nights grow silent,
Then speak the sunny days.

So leave the heart's sick fancies,
And lend thy little voice
To the silver song of glory
That bids the world rejoice!

From the London "Once a Week."

TOM ROCKET,

THE ENGLISH HIGHWAYMAN.

[CONCLUDED.]

It was not quite fair of my father, I must own, but he determined to set a trap for Tom Rocket, baited with the five hundred guineas, at the bridge. He posted up to London, saw Bradshaw, a famous Bow street runner, and arranged that he and his men should come down and help to catch Tom; but just at the last moment Bradshaw was detained on some important government trial, and so another runner, Fraser, a no less celebrated officer, took his place.

It was settled that the runners should come by different roads, and all meet at a way side inn about five miles from the bridge, at eight o'clock P. M. on the day my father's pocket-book was to be returned. An hour afterwards they were to join him on the road three miles further on. Their object, you see, in taking this roundabout course, was to baffle Tom's spies and accomplices, and to get securely hid about the appointed spot, long before the appointed time.

My father was a little late at the place of meeting; but when he arrived there he could see no one about except a loutish looking countryman in a smock-frock, who was swinging on a gate hard by.

"Good noight maister," said the yokel.

"Good night to you," said my father.

"Can you tell me who this yer letter's for," said the yokel, producing a folded paper.

My father saw in a moment that it was his own letter to Bradshaw.

"Where did you get that?" he said quickly.

"Ah!" replied the yokel, replacing it in his pocket, "that ud be tellins. Be yer expecting anybody?"

"What's that to you?" said my father.

"Oh nought," said the yokel, "only a gentleman from London—"

"Ha!" cried my father; "what gentleman?"

"Will a name beginning with F. suit you?" asked the yokel.

"Fraser?" The word fell involuntarily from my father's lips.

"That's the name," replied the yokel, jumping down from his seat, and changing his tone and manner in a moment. "I'm Frazer, sir, and you're Mr. Sandiger, as has been robbed of a pocket book containing valuable papers; and we're going to catch Tom Rocket as has got it—that's our game, sir. All right, sir; and now to business."

"But where are your men?" my father asked, when Fraser had explained the reason for his disguise.

"All right again, sir," said the runner, "they will join us. We have not much time to lose, so please to lead the way."

So my father led the way, followed by Fraser; and by the time that they came in sight of the bridge, they had been joined by four London officers, in different disguises, and from different directions. One appeared as a tramp, one as a peddlar, another as a gentleman's servant leading a horse, and the fourth as a soldier. No one could have guessed that they had met before, much less that they were engaged together in a pre-concerted scheme. My father gave Fraser great credit for the dexterous way in which he had collected his forces.

The bridge upon which the money was to be placed, consisted of two arches across the river, and was joined on either side by a long sort of causeway, built upon piles over meadows that in the winter time were generally covered with water. It so happened, that the very next morning after the robbery a heavy rain set in, and soon the flood swere out, so that there was no way of getting on the bridge but by going along the causeway, which extended a distance of a hundred yards, sloping down gradually to the road, on each side of the river. This causeway was built of wood. At some places the timbers were covered with earth and stones, but at others the roadway had worn out and they were bare, so that any one looking up from underneath, could see who was passing overhead. Mr. Fraser's sharp eye took in the position in a moment. He got two hurdles out of a field close by, and with some rope, that he had brought for another purpose, fastened them to the piles, so that they hung like shelves between the roadway and the flood, one at each side of the bridge, and about twenty yards from it. This was his plan:—Two of his men were to be hiddn on each hurdle, whilst he and my father in a boat that was concealed beneath the main arch of the bridge, unseen themselves, could watch the heap of stones where the money was to be placed, and the stolen pocket-book left in exchange for it. As soon as Tom Rocket, or any of his friends, removed the bag in which the gold was packed, Fraser was to whistle, and his men were to climb from their hiding places and secure whoever it might be be.—If he leaped over the railing of the causeway, and took to the water, there was the boat in which to follow and capture him.

Mr. Fraser was very particular to practice his allies in springing quickly from their place of concealment and impressing upon them and my father the necessity of all acting together, keeping careful watch and strict silence. "And now sir," he said to my father as a distant clock chimed a quarter of twelve, it is time to get to our places and to bait the trap, so please to hand me the bag that I may mark it, and some of the coins so as to be able to identify them at the trial." He had made up his mind to nail master Tom this time.

My father gave him the bag, saw him write upon it, and make some scratches on about a dozen of the guineas, and then my father let himself down into the boat, in which he was immediately joined by the runner.

"It's all right," said Fraser, in a low tone.

"Do you think he will come," whispered my father.

"Certain," replied Fraser, "but hush! we must not talk, sir, time's up."

For three mortal hours did my father sit in that boat, and the runners lay stretched out on the broad of their backs upon those hurdles watching for Tom Rocket to come for his money; and for three mortal hours not a soul approached the bridge, not a sound but the wash of the swollen river was heard. By the time that the clock struck three, my father, who had been nodding for the last twenty minutes, fell fast asleep as he sat covered up in his cloak, for it was a bitter cold night; but was very speedily aroused by hearing Fraser cry out that they were adrift.

Adrift they were, sure enough. The rope that held them had been chafed against the sharp corner of a pile (so Mr. Fraser explained) till it broke, and away went the boat, whirling round and round in the eddies of the river, fit to make any one giddy. So strong was the stream, that they were carried a mile and a half down it, before they could get ashore. My father was for returning directly to the bridge, and so was Fraser; but, somehow or other, they lost each other in the dark; and when my father arrived there, having run nearly all the way, he found, to his great surprise, that the officers had left. He rushed to the heap of stones and there the first thing that caught his eye was his pocket-book—the money was gone.

Lord, how he did swear.

Determining to have it out with the runners for deserting their posts, he hurried on to the inn where they had met, and were to pass the night. He knocked at the door.—No answer. He knocked again, louder. No answer. He was not in the very best of tempers, as you may guess; so he gave the door a big kick. In it flew; and a sight met his view that fairly took away his breath.—Tied into five chairs, hand and foot, trussed up like so many Christmas turkeys, with five gags in their five mouths, and their five pair of eyes glaring at him owlishly, sat the real Mr. Fraser and his four Bow street runners. Tom Rocket had managed the business at the bridge himself! How he managed to get scent of the plot, and to seize the officers, all together, just at the nick of time, my father never could find out, and no one knows to this day.

Upon examining his pocket-book, my father found all his documents, and a paper on which was written these words:

"By destroying these writings I could have ruined you. In doing so I should have injured your client, whom I respect. For his sake I keep my word, though you have played me false. TOM ROCKET."

Here Mr. Josh paused, and smoked for some time in silence.

"And what became of Tom?" asked one of the company.

"Well," replied Mr. Josh, "after having been tried three times, and getting off upon some law quibble on each occasion, he—who had robbed the worth of thousands of pounds, and escaped—was executed at Nottingham for stealing an old bridle!"

A BLOODLESS VICTORY!!!

1,000,000 BOXES SOLD OF MOREHEAD'S
MAGNETIC PLASTER

THIS ENORMOUS QUANTITY OF this Invaluable Remedy has been purchased by citizens of the United States during the short time it has been before the public. The reason for this extraordinary success is simply in the actual truth and value of the article. No one buys the MAGNETIC PLASTER without becoming its friend. It performs all that is promised, and carries with it its own recommendation. Truly this is a Victory—peaceful and bloodless—but we believe not less glorious than the triumphs of war, with its train of carnage and desolation.

The MAGNETIC PLASTER is undoubtedly the Greatest Strengthener and Pain Destroyer that Science has yet discovered. If you put this Plaster, anywhere, if Pain is there, the Plaster will stick there until the Pain has vanished. The Plaster magnetises the Pain away, and PAIN CANNOT EXIST WHERE THIS PLASTER IS APPLIED.

Rheumatism, Lameness, Stiffness, Weakness, Debility, Nervousness, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Coughs and Colds, Pains and Aches of every kind, are IMMEDIATELY RELIEVED, and, with a little patience, PERMANENTLY CURED, by the magical influence of the MAGNETIC PLASTER. It is the simplest, surest, safest, pleasantest and cheapest remedy in existence. Its application is universal—equally to the strong man, the delicate woman, and the feeble infant. Its use is agreeable, and without annoyance or trouble. Its price is within reach of all—rich or poor; all may have it, and all should have it who are sick, and suffering in any way.

FARMERS and PLANTERS should always be supplied with the MAGNETIC PLASTER. It will be the Good Physician in any household, ready at all times and at instant notice.

Put up in air-tight tin boxes. Each box will make six to eight plasters, and any child can spread them. Price, twenty-five cents per box, with full and plain directions. D. C. MOREHEAD, M. D.,
Inventor and Proprietor, 19 Walker St., N. Y.

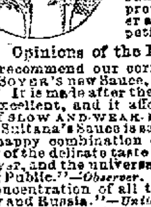
SOYER'S SULTANA SAUCE.

For Hot or Cold Dishes of all Kinds.



THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce was invented by the renowned "SOYER," on his return from the Crimea, and since his decease is manufactured by CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. The manufacturers simply ask for it a trial, convinced that it must add to the already large consumption, and that it will prove itself unequaled, either as a stimulant to the appetite or an aid to digestion.

Opinions of the London Press

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONSIEUR SOYER's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"The Sultana's Sauce is savory, piquant, and spicy; a happy combination of flavors and essences worthy of the delicate taste of a Sultana, the genius of a Soyer, and the universal patronage of a discriminating Public."—Observer.

"A concentration of all the piquant resources of Turkey and Russia."—United Service Gazette.

"As a titillator of the appetite this Sauce stands alone. It is a most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh, or Fowl, and should be placed on every dinner table."—Atlas.

"The Sultana sauce is a most delicious zest."—Morn Chronicle.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
EVER
Worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE IT IS THE ORNAMENT GOD Himself provided for our race. Readers, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled or shrivelled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than one half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

DR. WOOD:— New York, April 19, 1858.

Dear Sir—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd."
Welsh Newspaper office, 13 Nassau st.,
April 12, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

New York, July 25, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It has also relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who prespire freely.

J. G. KILBY.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grow out, and turn back to its former color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857. J. D. HOES.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small, the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large hold a quart, forty per cent more in proportion and retails for $3,00 a bottle.

The wheat market was pretty steady to-day, and sales were quite considerable at the following quotations: 93c for Extra Spring delivered; 91@92c for Club; 88@89c for No. 1; and 86½@87c for No. 2 on on the track. The New York report had an unfavorable effect on the market, and in the afternoon a very dull feeling prevailed; buyers, however, were unable to establish lower figures. Flour was firm, but not active. Sales comprised some 600 bbls Spring Extra at $4,50@4,59 for good to choice country brands, and $5 for City. Not much done in course grains, and prices unchanged. Freights a little firmer, and a vessel was chartered to take a cargo of wheat to Buffalo to-day at 7c, an advance of ½ cent.

MONTHLY RECEIPTS.—The receipts of flour and wheat at this point for each of the past ten months compare as follows with the receipts for the corresponding month in 1858:

The heavy deficit in the receipts of 1859 up to September 1st, and the great preponderance in favor of 1859 since that date is accounted for by the failure of the previous harvest and the abundant yield of this year's crop.

THE RECENT DECLINE IN BREADSTUFFS IN LIVERPOOL.—With regard to the recent decline in Liverpool, the New York Herald of yesterday remarks: "The decline in the grain market, which was inevitable after the late advance, had taken place at Liverpool, though not at London; at the former place wheat is quoted lower, at the latter higher. The heavy stocks which are held at the principal ports in Europe render re-actions an inevitable future of an advancing market."

CHICAGO, October 29th.—Receipts: 7,416 bbls flour, 160,773 bush wheat, 8,924 bus corn, 17,262 bus oats, 4,937 bus barley.

The Press & Tribune of this morning says of Saturday's market:

The wheat market, under dull news from Europe and New York, declined 1@1½c. At the opening several parcels of No. 2 spring were sold at 87½@88c, but as soon as the steamer was reported the market fell to 86@87c—the bulk of the sales being made at the latter figure. About 75,000 bushels were sold at $1,05 for No. 1 red; 95c for No. 2 red; 89@90c for No. 1 Spring; 86@88c for No. 2 Spring, and 82@83c for rejected—all in store—the market closing very quiet at 86½c and 89c for No. 2 and No. 1. Flour was less active to-day, buyers generally insisting on lower prices—the market declining about 5c. About 1,500 barrels changed hands at 4,45@4,70 for spring extras; $4@4,10 for do. superfine; and $5,50 for white winter. New Corn was more active at somewhat lower figures. Several parcels of shelled were sold in store at 50½@53c, and on track at 52@54c. For future delivery the sales to-day were at 50@51c. Ear corn in fair request at 48@50c. Old corn quiet at 76c for No. 1 in store. Oats ½ lower, with sales of about 15,000 bus, at 32 for No. 1 in store. Rye dull and lower, with sales at 66c for No. 1. Barley more active and ½@1c better. JUNIUS JUDSON,

PATENTEE AND MANUFACTURER OF

JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1850. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1854. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 6th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperature necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if this application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations.
